Dear Ms. Thomas:

On April 13, 2007, the Salt Lake Field Office BLM received conformation from the Utah State Office BLM, Mining Law Adjudication Team that the $2,300.00 financial guarantee that we had on file covering your expired Notice U-77799 has been transferred to your new exploration Notice serialized U-77831. Please use this number for any future correspondence regarding this project.

We have closed Notice U-77799, but please be aware that you are still responsible for the mining related disturbances conducted under said Notice and your new Notice (U-77831) will include all past, present and future disturbances at this site.

Therefore, the BLM Salt Lake Field Office has accepted your exploration notice, and you may proceed with the exploration activities in said notice as long as you have approval from the Utah Division of Oil, Gas and Mining.

This acceptance does not constitute: certification of ownership to any persons or company named in your exploration notice; recognition of the validity of any mining claims named in your exploration notice; or recognition of the economic feasibility of the operation proposed.

If you have any questions, or require additional information, please contact Larry Garahana of my staff at (801) 977-4371.

Sincerely,

Dave H. Murphy
